This housing option is offered based on availability and the student’s eligibility for on-campus housing (i.e. students must be eligible for housing in Millennium Hall and meet all deadlines for submission of the reservation fee and housing license). Housing assignments are considered based on individual needs, preferences, and space availability. Unless roommate preferences are provided, students assigned in Gender Inclusive Housing will be assigned without consideration of gender.

Please list any roommate preference on your electronic Profile Sheet (New Residents) or Renewal Intent Form (Current Residents), requests must be mutual and requested roommate(s) must complete and submit Gender Inclusive Housing Agreement).

If you are comfortable, please answer the following question. Though this is optional, the information provided will be used in determining priority in assignments.

Why are you interested in Gender Inclusive Housing (GIH) at Towson University (TU)?

How would your participation in GIH support you and your experience at TU?

By providing my signature and date below, I confirm that I have read all information on the Gender Inclusive Housing Agreement and my assigned roommate(s) will be made without consideration of sex, birth gender, biological gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation.
