

2024-2025 GENDER-INCLUSIVE HOUSING AGREEMENT

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Gender-Inclusive Housing is a housing option developed to provide a welcoming space for all students. This housing option is available within designated living areas for new, transferring, and returning students of any gender to choose to live together in apartments. Students who select this housing option must sign an agreement of understanding for Gender-Inclusive Housing to finalize their interest.

Gender-Inclusive Housing is an inclusive, voluntary housing option where students can be assigned to live in the same apartment with any other student regardless of sex, birth gender, biological gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation.

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

Gender-Inclusive Housing is open to all students. Students must also complete the application process according to deadlines and qualify for on-campus housing. Students will also be required to sign a Gender-Inclusive Housing agreement of understanding noting their compliance to community standards.

This housing option is offered based on availability and the student's eligibility for housing (i.e. students must be eligible for housing and meet all deadlines for submission of required documents). Housing assignments are considered based on individual needs, preferences, and space availability. Please note that because space is limited, indicating an interest in the Gender-Inclusive Housing Program does not automatically guarantee a space in Millennium Hall or in Gender-Inclusive Housing.

APPLYING FOR GENDER-INCLUSIVE HOUSING

Returning Millennium Hall students should indicate their interest in Gender Inclusive Housing on their Profile Sheet and submit the Gender Inclusive Housing Agreement. First-time Millennium-Hall students should initially indicate their interest in Gender Inclusive Housing on the online application by marking the checkbox that states "I am interested in Gender Inclusive Housing" and submit the Gender Inclusive Housing Agreement.

Please note that because space is limited, indicating an interest in the Gender Inclusive Housing Program does not automatically guarantee a space in Millennium Hall or in Gender Inclusive housing.

VACANT GENDER-INCLUSIVE HOUSING ASSIGNMENTS

Throughout the academic year, the availability of Gender-Inclusive Housing occupancy may change for various reasons including but not limited to housing eligibility, graduation, roommate conflicts, etc. Management will notify current occupants of a gender-inclusive space once an occupant has moved out. The current occupants will be given seven (7) days to identify a new student to occupy the vacancy. If a student is not able to be identified by the current occupants within the timeframe, Management will identify a person interested in Gender-Inclusive housing to occupy the vacancy as quickly as possible.
